

Appendix 1. Abundance and geographic distribution of molting scoters observed during aerial photographic surveys conducted between late July and mid-August 2012 and 2013 in northeastern James Bay near Wemindji and Chisasi, Quebec. Green circles represent total estimates of scoters in areas where numerous molting flocks (red circles) of scoters were concentrated. Extracted from Badzinski et al. 2013.

